

BOSTON COMMON

BROOD CHIC
Kids' Fashion
Grows Up

THE LUXE LIST
Boston's Best
Bets for Health,
Style, Fitness,
Design & More!

PLUS
Squash Tournaments,
Bespoke Travel Experiences & the Secret to Happiness

Taraji P. Henson
TAKING CHARGE & HOLDING NOTHING BACK

Architecture & Real Estate

From a butler who does it all to builders who move with you (really) and a lighting designer who will even make your trees look good, these experts make you feel like you're home anywhere.

BEST LUXE REALTOR

Michael L. Caruze (777 Downtown St., caruze@psn.com) This is the broker that Bostonians and out-of-towners (including Celine Dion) turn to for residential real estate, from sky-high penthouses in the city to cattleback abodes in the 'burbs.

BEST ALL-IN-ONE RESIDENCE

EchelonSupport (145 Support Bld., echelon@psn.com) You never need to leave this building, which sits alone a central courtyard and 125,000 square feet of retail space and restaurants, offers five-star services, and boasts three pools, two sky lounges and more.

BEST REMODELERS

FBN Construction (17

Wilcott Court, Hyde Park, fbnconstruction.com) This wide-reaching firm goes beyond expert construction—it understands design. Expect impeccable transformations that make sense.

BEST GREEN BUILDERS

JW Construction (12 Garfield Crk., Burlington, jwconstruction.com) Environmental factors are top of mind now more than ever. Jon Wardwell's squad knows how to build sustainably, utilizing up-to-date methods of recycling, reusing and conserving energy.

BEST ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN WITH LIFESTYLE

CONCERGE Morehouse MacDonald (2 Bow St., leavinton, morehousemacdonald.com) This company specializes in custom coastal and island home award-winning design—down to the very last detail. They'll curate art, stock a wine cellar and shop for the best ski equipment and swimwear.

BEST POOL IN TOWN

One Dalton (1 Dalton St., one@dalton.com) This snazzy 65-foot infinity pool is nestled against floor-to-ceiling expanses of glass with city views. The Harley Pastorek-designed fitness center is just steps away, along with a spa and salon.

BEST VACATION HOME BUILDER

Woodmeister Master Builders (1317 Washington St., woodmeister.com) Billing themselves as builders who travel with their clients, this firm has sent highly skilled teams to craft Rocky Mountain retreats, Manhattan penthouses and farmhouses in wine country.

BEST BUYER'S BROKER

HGS Group (167 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge, hgs@premierestates.com) Attorney-turned-broker Maggie Gold Seelig specializes in representing the buyer. With a quick wit, innate sense of style and razor-sharp negotiating skills, she sources and strategizes, playing matchmaker with savvy.

BEST LIGHTING DESIGN

Light Positive (5 Fleet, Cliff Road, Highland Falls, lightpositive.com) Nancy Goldstein can make anything look better. From recessed lighting to enhance artwork to installing 300 outdoor fixtures to illuminate an array of boss trees to MacGyvering a solution to make the blue flecks in a customer's polished granite countertop sparkle, she is Boston's magical light whisperer.

BEST RUGS AND CARPETS

Landry & Arcant (333 Sweet St., landryandarcant.com) This 80-year-old family-run business understands both service and luxury. The showroom displays thousands of rugs, from antique Orientals to vintage kilims to contemporary carpets, and the salespeople are knowledgeable about the history and makers. They also commission custom handmade designs, and handle cleaning and repairs.

PHOTO COURTESY OF CONTEMPORARY

THE LUXE LIST

YOU WORK HARD, YOU PLAY HARD, YOU NEED TO LUXURIATE HARD. SAY HELLO TO YOUR NEW LIFESTYLE BIBLE.

BY ERICA CORSANO AND MARNI KATZ

The forthcoming St. Regis Boston will overlook the water.

BEST BUTLER

The St. Regis Residences, Boston (150 Support Bld., one@dalton.com)

The announcement of this 22-story, 114-unit residential building, coming to Boston, solidified what locals already know: This city is a vibrant center of luxury shopping and living. When they open, The St. Regis Residences Boston, designed by Skis Manfred Architects, will offer hotel-level attentiveness at home, with daily butler services that cater to every need, from planning getaways and reserving tee times to stocking the fridge and sourcing fine wine. Owners can also enjoy the 12,000-square-foot amenity level on the fourth floor, which houses the St. Regis Bar, a swimming pool, wine vault, grand lounge, spa and golf-activation room—to practice for all those tee times, of course. The building's proximity to Boston's rich culture and culture scene make it the best place to set up home.

PHOTO COURTESY OF CONTEMPORARY

BEST SKY CABANAS

Pierce Boston (188 Beakline Ave., pierce@psn.com) They aren't perched over Boston Harbor; rather, the private 300-room open-air patio offer an eye full of gorgeous greenery, with sweeping views of the Emerald Necklace, along with the downtown Boston, Back Bay and Cambridge skylines. The niches are all outfitted with hot, creating ideal setup for hosting intimate dinners or unwinding after work while watching the sunset.

BEST ANTIQUES

Perin Lang Antiques (118 Eastern Ave., Essex, perinlang.com) Sparkling Irish crystal chandeliers, a masterful mahogany breakfast and a marble sculpture of Cupid are just a few of the treasures recently available from this highly respected dealer, which specializes in period European, English, and American pieces. The shop, located in a 4,500-square-foot restored Methodist Episcopal church in Salem, is equally alluring.

BEST HIGH-END REAL ESTATE LAWYER

Sonja Selami Law Firm When high-end Realtors refer a real estate lawyer to their clients, Sonja Selami Law Firm is their go-to. What sets this law firm apart is its on-call mentality for its clients—the staff thrives on going above and beyond, including promoting Realtor listings via social media. While Selami's team caters to a higher-end clientele, it is always pouring the pavement networking, hosting events and servicing clients.

Auto

Luxury cars get elevated to an airform with these companies focused on making life on four wheels as good as possible.

BEST LUXURY VEHICLE STORAGE

Classic Car Valet (classiccarsvalet.com) Two temperature- and humidity-controlled garages store your summer ride when you head for winter wheels, or vice versa, or when you head overseas. The company transports, details and starts the engine regularly, too, making boarding hassle and worry-free.

BEST EXCLUSIVE COLLECTOR

Copley Motor Cars (37 Chestnut St., newham, copleymotorcars.com) This exotic boutique dealer buys from and sells to the most discerning classic and sports car collectors. Stanout recent offerings include a 1936 Alfa Romeo for $1.25 million and 1965 Ferrari for $2.175 million.

BEST EXOTIC RENTAL

Gotham Dream Cars (gethamsdreamcars.com) This roster of exotic rentals titillates those who want to experiment without committing. The local fleet includes a Corvette Stingray, Ferrari 458 Spider and Lamborghini Huracán.

BEST LUXE SUV

Rolls-Royce Motor Cars of New England (579 Boston Post Road, Weymouth, hertzrollsroyceofnewengland.com)

The Cullinan is the Rolls-Royce of SUVs, and the distinguished brand's first, its name, hails from the world's largest gem quality uncut diamond, and the price follows suit, starting at about $125,000.

The new Rolls-Royce Cullinan

The Rolls-Royce Phantom is the epitome of luxury.

GOLDSTEIN PIERCE PR